Acknowledgment

We express our endless appreciation to the Allah Almighty, The Most Gracious, and The Most Merciful, without whose kindness and beauty, this try couldn't have been conceivable even in its smallest. We bow before our sympathetic enrichments. Peace be upon HOLY PROPHET MUHAMMAD (PBUH) who is ever a light of direction and information for mankind in general.

We consider it an honor and benefit to pay our thanks and regards to our Project Advisor, Sir Amjad Hussain Zahid for their direction, guidance and motivation, particularly in our hard times. No affirmation could ever express our commitment to our folks who have dependably wished to see us flying high up at the skies of achievement. We would like to express our heartfelt thanks and respect to our honorable Director of Projects Sir Sajid Mehmood for encouraging and motivating us to do this project.

Also, we might need to broaden our whole hearted because of the University of Management and Technology, Lahore and different representatives of Computer Science Department, for giving essential help and heading in the midst of this expect. Before long we are thankful to our errand specialist for working under his bearing. This will always help in our lives.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Motivations

Motivation can be effected by the interest in the work.As our project is on events, so our interest was doubled, and our expectation should be succeed and our satisfaction in the achievements

We chose this project because it's a new idea, people can't find any good path where they can get proper information about events. So we decided to provide them a way where they get every update of the upcoming events.

As people are always interested in events, in internet world there are small or in complete information of events, so we decide to join these small information's and modify these information's in a complete way. So we are very motivated to provide them this opportunity which was very helpful for them.

Motivation always come in a challenge way. So our project is like a challenge for us which we have to complete in time, make our project efficient, get users trust, give updates of every new event. It's quite difficult but makes our self-motivated to complete this project in making of new invention.
