1. INTRODUCTION

This is a website project which will provide the students of the University and Management and Technology a platform where they will be able to explore their hidden talents through various methods. Many students till now are not aware of the OPA (Office of Participants Affairs). What is it about? What do they do? This dedicated website will give exposure to OPA and it will allow OPA to explore the hidden talents within the students.

1.1 Motivations

As per the modern age, almost everything has been electronic, starting from a small smart phone to the world's largest supercomputer; almost everything has been electronic. Using things which are running electronically have made our lives quite easy, but still there are a few who would disagree with this methodology.
