ABSTRACT

This documentation is all about web Application “Deal Zone” which is an advertising platform for all the brands of Food, Garments, Mobile network and Travel.

Many times companies offer amazing deals, which are most likely to satisfy the customer need economically. But the company lacks in advertising the specific deal, and a customer could not avail it within the valid time period. So our application will focus on providing the information of ravishing deals of multiple companies at the door step of user. Multiple companies can advertise their deals. There exists some website that perform same task but this is one kind of genre. This project deals with different offers of different kinds of categories.

The end user can see multiple deals on the website, take benefit from it and can also rate the deal by signing up on the website. This feature can benefit other customers by viewing the rating of products.
